At 3.30 p.m. 27-12-41, Sergeant Fujita of the Japanese Gendarmerie Headquarters, accompanied by complainant Mr. Ching (景傳), a manager of the Chung Foo Silk Factory, House 13, Lane 1004, Yenue Road, came to Crime Branch Headquarters and requested assistance to visit the Kwan Son Yuan Restaurant, Hanking Road, for purpose of effecting the arrest of five or six male Orientals who had falsely represented themselves to be members of the Japanese Gendarmerie and were attempting to extort the sum of 150,000.00 from Mr. Woo Ching.

Sergeant Fujita gave additional information to the effect that these men might be armed as on the 24th December 1941 when keeping a rendezvous with the complainant one of them had produced a pistol, at the same time explaining that he was a member of the Japanese Gendarmerie.

Complainant Mr. Woo Ching when questioned stated that on the morning of 24th December 1941, he had received a telephone message from some unknown person asking him to call at room 224 Great Western Hotel in re his factory having previously been registered with

Shortly after this conversation five other male Orientals entered the room, some in foreign dress, and one of them was introduced to him as Kao Fei. This man immediately took a pistol from his pocket and placed same on the table after which it is alleged he informed the complainant that for 20% of the capital of his company he could settle the matter. As this amounted to approximately $50,000.00 complainant asked for time to consider the matter and in the meantime made contact with the Gendarmerie Headquarters through a friend, resulting in him fixing a rendezvous this afternoon (27-12-41) at the Kwan San Yuan Restaurant, Nanking Road.

Questioned regarding his other associates this accused gave their meeting place as a certain address on Tiendong Road in the Hongkew Area and as a result of this

My name is Sung Tsung Fong, age 37, native of Chinkiang, M/Hardware broker, residing at House No.45 Wong Yue Li, Rue Chaspel, French Concession.

At about 6 p.m. 6-1-42 I left my home and proceeded to 49 Kwangse Road for the purpose of locating one namei Doo Ah Tsi alias Wong Sung Sz, friend of my wife, who according to my wife, could do something on the application of any kind of permits, issued by the Japanese Authorities, as she had several friends working in the Japanese Gendarmerie. The reason why I went to visit Doc Ah Tsi being that my friend Tsang Yoeh Ding had several-ten bags of sugar which he intended to transport to Nanshang for sale. As my friend had no permit for the movement of sugar to Nanshang, he came to me and asked me to help him.

On my arrival at 45 Kwangse Road I was arrested by the police officers and brought to Crime Branch Headquarters for enquiries.

This is my true statement.

XXXXXX Y.C. Chang

My name is Zee Chao Foo alias Gee Chao Foo, 27 years of age, native of Wusih, and residing in a Lodging House.

When I was young boy, I studied in a private school in the city of Wusih, and at the age of 22 years I was an apprentice in the Dah Kong Drapery Shop, located in the same city.

At the age of 24 years (i.e. in the year 1939) I came to Shanghai from my native place, and through the introduction of one Gee Zau Liang, a friend of mine, I joined the Peace & Reconstruction Corps and was employed as a secretary under one Vai Keng Zai, who was the Sergeant-Major of the 3rd Regiment of the 12th Route Army. Up to September 1941 the aforementioned army was disbanded, therefore I returned to the place of my nativity, where I then became unemployed.

On the 27-12-41 I came to Shanghai again and lived in the Tsung Kiang Lodging House, located on Rue de Weikwe, French Concession. After living in this Lodging House for a period of two days, I met one Kong Zieng Yoong (not arrested), an acquaintance of mine, who previously worked in the same Army with me.

On 30-12-41 when Kong Zieng Yoong and myself were rambling about the street, we met one named Yah Woo Zaung, who formerly opened a tea-shop in Pootung. Owing to the bankruptcy of his tea-shop, he came to Shanghai and lived in Room 76 of the Three Friends' Lodging House, located on Rue Politiee, French Concession. This latter man was connected both Kong Liang Y ong and myself to his room, in which three other persons (name unknown) were found to be present.

At that time Yeh Woo Young spoke to us that as we were lack of money, we ought to commit a robbery in Seizing's me. He told us that every thing was ready for carrying on the attempted robbery except some pistols, whilst Kong Liang Yoong replied he could dispose of this problem.

In the afternoon of the same day, Yeh Woo Young led Kong Liang Yoong and three other persons to a place, i.e. Sung Kee Shing Macaroni Shop, House 487 Nanon Road, the vicinity of which they investigated for purpose of committing their robbery some days later.

At 12 noon on the 1-1-43 as I was wandering about in No. 13 wharf, the Bund, I met one Loh Kau Tseng (2nd accused), a friend of mine, and then brought him to Room 28 of the Tsung Kiang Lodging House, located on Rue de Weikwe, F.O.C.

At about 5 p.m. on the 3-1-43 Kong Liang Yoong in company with Chen Yue Tsuih (4th accused) also came to the Tsung Kiang Lodging House for purpose of discussing how to carry on their attempted robbery, and they further made an engagement to meet in Room 604 of the Yeh Woo Lodging House, located on Avenue Edward VII, F.O.C. at 7 p.m. the same day.

On the appointed time I accompanied Loh Kau Tseng to Room 604 of the Yeh Woo Lodging House, wherein we saw Kong Liang Yoong, Yeh Woo Young and 3 or 4 other persons were all present at the time.

At about 8 p.m. same date, Yeh Woo Young and Kong Liang

Yoong, each armed with a pistol, led all of us to leave the Dah Woo Lodging House, and then travel along Avenue Edward VII, F.C., Shantung Road, Nanking Road, Hsi nan Road, and finally we arrived at 487 Honan Road, i.e. the address of the Sung Nee Shing Chinese Macaroni Shop. Then Lee Ching Kong (3rd accused) kept a watch on the opposite side-walk of the street and I in front of the shop, while all the other members of our party entered inside the shop. After about 10 minutes, some rushed out of the said premises, and then each one of our party returned back separately to Room 604 of the Dah Woo Lodging House. Those who returned back earlier were led by Yeh Woo Zatung and Kong Zieng Yoong to another Lodging House (Sign-board and address unknown to me), because they were afraid that their criminal case might be discovered by others. I, reaching the room the latest, was not on time to follow them and unable to find their whereabouts, hence I stayed in the Tsung Kiang Lodging House for one more night.

At about 9 a.m. the next day, i.e. on 4-1-48, Kong Zieng Yoong came to my room and told me that an amount of $1,000.00 was robbed from the Sung Nee Shing Macaroni Shop the other evening. In the meantime I received from Kong Zieng Yoong a share of $50.00 of their loot for myself, and another share of $50.00 for Loh Kew Yoong (2nd accused), and after this, Kong Zieng Yoong left my room.

At 12 noon, same date, Loh Kew Yoong (2nd accused) visited me in my room, whilst I gave him back sum of $50.00 to him as above.

At 2 p.m. on the 6-1-48, Kong Liang Yoong came to me and said that he had booked a room #2 Room 202 of the Tsung Hwa Lodging House, located on Fochi Road. I then left my room and together with Kong Liang Yoong went to the Tsung Hwa Lodging House. As the last or room was too small for our group of persons to live in, Kong Liang Yoong in company with me went to book another room at Room 202 of the Shanghai Bing Lodging House, located on Huapeh Road, wherein only I, myself stayed that night, whilst my went to sleep in a bracket, located at the rear of the Chinese Laundry.

At about 2 p.m. on the 7-1-48 when I went to Room 202 of the Tsung Hwa Lodging house to visit Kong Liang Yoong, who was absent at the time, I was arrested by the police.

This is my true statement.

The following described persons, participated in this robbery, are still not arrested:-

1. Kong Liang Yoong, age 28 years, height 5' 8", medium build, long face, yellow hair, brushed back, wearing grey coloured foreign dress, and sometimes wearing Chinese long gown, Foochow dialect.
2. Yeh Woo Zaung, age about 30 years, height about 5' 5", pale complexion, round face, medium build, hair brushed backward, wearing grey coloured Long gown, Foochow dialect.

My name is Loh Kau Tsang alias Lau Pak Lao, 28 years of age, native of Foo tung, K/Hawker, and residing at house No. 28 Loh Kah Wei, Footung, but No. 7.A. in Shanghai.

During my boyhood I followed my parents to farm in the fields in my native place. In May 194 through the introduction of a acquaintance of mine (Name unknown), I was employed as an orderly in the special service section of the 13th division. In July the same year I resigned from this work and became a hawker henceforth.

On the 1-1-42 when I was on board a ship to Shanghai from Footung and got ashore from No. 13 wharf, the Bund, I met a friend of mine named Kee Chao Foo (1st accused), and then accompanied him to book Room No. 28 of the Tsing Kiang Lodging House, located on Rue de Weikwe, French Concession, wherein both of us lived together.

At about 6 p.m. on the 2-1-42 I together with Kee Chao Foo visited Room No. 76 of the Three Friends' Lodging House, located at Rue Falikao, French Concession where the latter introduced me to get acquaintance with one named Kong Ziang Yoong. At that moment Kong Ziang Yoong spoke to me that a Sung Kee Chinese Macaroni Shop, located at 487 Nanking Road, was in possession of a great deal of money and he attempted to carry on an robbery in this shop. He asked me to join their party also and promised that he would dispatch someone to call me in the Tsing Kiang Lodging House at 6 p.m. on 3-1-42, whilst I agreed with his opinion.

At about 6 p.m. the next day, 3-1-42, Kee Chao Foo in company with one Chen Yue Tsai (4th accused) visited me in the Tsung Kiang Lodging House and then brought me to Room 604 of the Dah Hua Lodging House, located on Avenue Edward VII, French Concession, wherein Kong Ziang Yen and 4 or 5 other persons (Name unknown) were present.

At about 8 p.m. the same day, I together with Kee Chao Foo, Chen Yue Tsai, Kong Ziang Yeng and 4 or 5 persons (name unknown) travelled to No. 487 Nanan road for purpose of robbing Sung Kee Chinese Macaroni Shop, and on arrival at the address in question, we saw that its door was closed, but its small window still opened.

At that moment, on instructions of Kong Ziang Yeng, I kept watch in front of the shop and Kee Chao Foo on the opposite side-walk of the street, whilst Kong Ziang Yeng and another person (name unknown) each took out a pistol from their bodies, and then they together with Chen Yue Tsai and 2 or 3 other persons (name unknown) entered the said shop. After about 10 minutes as all of them, having done their work, ran out of the mentioned premises, I then returned back to the Tsung Kiang Lodging House by taking a ricksha.

At about 10 a.m. the next day, i.e. 4-1-42, both Kong Ziang Yeng and Kee Chao Foo arrived at Room 28 of the Tsung Kiang Lodging House, while Kong Ziang Yeng distributed me a sum of $1000 of their robbed money. The amount of money, received from the persons mentioned above, is unknown to me.

On 10th January 1942 Kee Chao Foo came to the Tsung Kiang Lodging House and informed me that Room 208 of the Young Hwa Lodging

My name is Lee Ching Kong alias Yih Sing Woo, 28 residing years of age, native of Nanking, married, and Ching Wei Jao

I was born in Loong Doo Market, Nanking.

At the age of 5 years I commenced schooling in a private school in the place of my nativity, and, owing to the poor financial circumstances of my family, I ceased my studies at the age of 6. I then helped my father to work in the farm at my native place up to the age of 15.

When I was 16 years old I enlisted myself as a soldier at Tsu Sai Wei outside the city of Nanking. Before the outbreak of the August 13th incident, the army, which I was attached to, was reorganised, hence I promoted to the rank of 1st class soldier attached to the 8th row, 7th company, 3rd battalion, 15th regiment of the 88th Division, which was then dispatched to Shanghai and stationed at Mah Loong Kong, Poontung, but the army was disbanded afterwards.

In the year 1938 I became an orderly in the 3rd company of the Special Service Battalion of the Peace & Reconstruction Corps, which was stationed at Bah Mao Village, Minghong. During my three years' services in the corps, I was in good friendship with one Kong Ziang Yoong, who was a captain of the 1st row of the 3rd company.

On the 1-1-48 (i.e. New Year's day) it was a holiday that Kong Ziang Yeong and myself made an engagement to travel to Shanghai. At 3 p.m. that day both of us started our journey at Bah Jac Village, Kinchong and at 5 p.m. same date we arrived at Shanghai. We booked a Room at Room 206 of the Dah Tung Sing lodging house, located on Rue Pelikao, French Concession where we rested for a while and then took our supper. Kong Ziang Yoong used the whole night for visiting his friends, while I slept lonely in the room.

At about 8 p.m. the next day, i.e. 3-1-42, Kong Ziang Yoong brought into the room three persons, one of whom was known to be named Yah Woo Zaung, the proprietor of a tea-shop at Dah Kong, Pootung, but the names of the other two persons were unknown to me. At that time all of us, consisting of Kong Ziang Yoong, Yah Woo Zaung, myself and the other two persons, gathered in the room and proposed that all of us should carry out a robbery if we wished to relieve our poor financial conditions, and this was agreed by all. After about half an hour, while Kong Ziang Yoong and Yah Woo Zaung were going to leave the room, the former gave me $10.00 for my food and told me still live in the Dah Tung Sing lodging house waiting for his good information. Both of them did not return to the room that whole night.

At 7 p.m. 3-1-42 while I was staying in the Dah Tung Sing lodging house, Kong Ziang Yoong and Yah Woo Zaung accompanied by two unknown male persons called on me and told me to participate in their conspiracy (robbery). At about 7.30 p.m. all of us (five in number) left the lodging house and proceeded to the corner of Nanan & Tientsin Roads where on instructions of Kong Ziang Yoong we were told to wait for a short time, while he left the spot for some other place from where he later brought to us another three persons, Kee Chao Foo (1st acc.) Loh Kau Tsang (2nd accused) and Chen Yue Tsuih (4th accused).

Under the leadership of Kong Ziang Yoong we then went to Sung Nee Shing Macaroni Shop, 487 Noman Road. On arrival we found that the shop in question had just closed for the day, but its front door had not yet been locked. We all entered the shop under the pretext of visiting friends, with the exception of Kee Chao Foo, Loh Kau Tsang and two other unknown male persons.

Having gained the entrance, Kong Ziang Yoong and Yah Woo Zaung (both armed with a pistol) threatened the inmates to keep quiet and at the same time instructed them to go upstairs where they were detained in a rear room. In the ensuing time I destroyed the iron safe by means of an iron axe, and with the assistance of Chen Yue Tsuih (4th accused) all banknotes together with subsidiary notes were put in a rattan basket which was then handed over to Kong Ziang Yoong. I did not know the exact amount of money in the rattan basket. After a lapse of ten minutes and on completion of our work, I descended downstairs. On leaving the premises, I found that Kee Chao Foo and two other unknown male persons took up their positions as look-outs, while Loh Kau Tsang stood guard the front door. I then returned to Room 206 of the Dah Tung Sing lodging house for the purpose of waiting for their return but with no result.

At about 7 a.m. 4-1-48 Kong Ziang Yoong came to my Room and gave me $100 as my share of proceeds, also instructing me to buy a suit of cotton long gown with which I could return to my corps. Before leaving my room, Kong told me that if I wanted to see him some time later, I could locate him in Room No.202 of the Tsung Hwa lodging house, Foochow Road.

at the age of 14. I then became employee as an apprentice in the Tsu Tseng Yien Fruit Shop, Footung until 18 when I secured employment in the Yen Deh Fruit Shop, Tseupoo where I worked for some time.

Resultant from the outbreak of the August 13th Incident 1937, the last mentioned fruit shop was compelled to suspend operation due to dull business, therefore I enlisted myself as a member of the Tseupoo Defence Corps which was organized for the purpose of protecting people on that locality. On May 1938
I resigned from the corps due to low wages and returned to

Later I secured employment in the Yue Tai Zieng Fruit

the shop closed down.

On 30-12-41 I received a letter from one of my

At 1 p.m. 2-1-42 I left Footung by boat and reached

At about 2 p.m. 3-1-42, I left the lodging house and proceeded to Tsung Kiang lodging house where I met Kong. At that time Kong proposed that all of us should carry out a robbery if we wish to relieve our financial condition, and this was agreed by all. Kong then suggested that all of us should gather at 7 p.m. that day in Room 604 of the Dah Woo lodging house, Avenue Edward VII. After that the 1st accused Kee Chao Foo and the 2nd accused Leh Kau Tsang left the room.

At about 7 p.m. same date, I accompanied Kong Kiang Yeong to Dah Woo lodging house. On arrival I found the following persons were present ; Kee Chao Foo (1st accused), Leh Kau Tsang (2nd accused), Lee Ching Kong alias Yih Sung Woo (3rd accused), Ya Wee Zeung (not arrested), Ya Wee Zeung's friend name not known and Tsoo Ching Sam. Kong then said to them that his intended task could be begun. Soon after all the aforementioned persons left the lodging house and walked north along Chekiang Road. On approaching Wanking Road, we turned east till we reached Hanan Road. On arriving at Sung Kee Shing Mercantile Shop, 487 Hanan Road at about 8.45 p.m., Kong Zeung Yeong armed with a pistol entered the shop in question with Leh Kau Tsang (2nd accused), Lee Ching Kong (3rd accused), Ya Wee Zeung and myself, while the 1st accused Kee Chao Foo, Tsoo Ching Sam and Ya Wee Zeung's friend took up their positions as look-outs. Kong being the leader ascended the 1st floor followed by us. In the meantime I took from the accountant's desk several-ten dollars, while Kong destroyed the safe and took out all money from it, but I did not know the exact amount he had taken.

After the fulfillment of our work, we descended the stairs and made good our escape through various directions. I returned to my room at Tsung Kiang lodging house.

At about 10 a.m. 4-1-42 Kong came to my place and gave me $50 as my share of proceeds.

At 3 p.m. 6-1-42 Kong came again to me and informed me that he had opened another room No.202 in the Tsung Hwa lodging house, Foochow Road, at the same time accompanied me to go there for recreation which I did, but I returned to my place after a short time.

At 11 a.m. 7-1-42 Kong Zieng Yeung came again to me and told me to attend Tsung Hwa lodging house at 4 p.m. sharp that day. I went there accordingly at the stated time when I was arrested.

This is my true statement.

On or before 19-3-42 one named Hsu Pah Ning (徐伯寧) shipping hong broker, home address unknown, came to visit Zao Zang Kyung in his office formerly located at 12 Foochoe Road and asked him to transport some cotton cloth to Sungkiang (綱江) via Minghong (明江). Zao Zang Kyung agreed and received delivery from Hsu Pah Ning on 20-3-42 480 rolls of cotton cloth for transporting to Sungkiang. Zao also received at the same time $25,000.00 from Hsu as transportation fee. Having obtained the cargo, Zao Zang Kyung then handed same to Hsia Shiu Chong for transporting to the destination and gave latter $4,750.00 as transportation fee. The cargo was placed in Hsia's home (Lane 217/5 Yates Road) pending the issuance of the necessary transportation permit. However, Hsia Shiu Chong failed to obtain this permit, therefore, this cargo was intended to be returned to the owner. At this time free movement of cloth in Hongkong was prohibited in the Settlement time, the cargo was consequently stored in Hsia's house pending the permission for a return permit.

My name is Hain Hiu Chong, age 27, native of Ningpo, Manager of the Hui Ning Store, residing at Lane 217/5
Yates Road.

Concise in February of this year, through business connection, I became acquainted with Zao Lan; Kyung who is a manager of the Chung Lien Shipping Hong at Room 12, 2nd floor of 30 Foochow Road.

On March 26th, at about 10 a.m., he came to my office and asked me to obtain a permit for him, because he had some cotton cloth etc to be transported to Lingshong.

At 10 a.m. 26/3/42, he again came to my office and paid me $3000.00 cash as transportation fee.

At 2 p.m., same date, he paid me a further amount of $1750.00 as transportation fee when I called on him at his office.

At 10 a.m. 27/3/42, Zao came to my office and asked me about the permit. I told him that unless a permit was issued by the China Affairs Board, nothing could be done in the matter. Consequently, at 4 p.m. 28/3/42, Zao transported by m/truck 500 rolls of cotton cloth and 2 cases of dye to my home at Lane 217/5 Yates Road, which he asked me to keep for him temporarily at my home. When he departed he said to me that he would come to take away the goods and transportation fee from me after a few days.

At 12 noon 23/4/42, Zao came to my home and took away
a part of the stored goods (50 rolls of cotton cloth).
Since then, I did not see him.
